Mater I gladly accepted and so captured another LL.D. (and mine I think was). It was a very pleasing thing Yale asking me to accept a degree; but I think I feel the other more.

Let me congratulate you on Michigan (I knew she had won out) on all a Pennsylvania

1– As to the Lectures I shall arrange with Prof. Wray – I like the idea

2– I never got a "Shepstone" for my LL.D. in the land of Zulus – Sir William Meredith said "Brethren shrewd

My Dear Sir Robert:–

Many thanks for your letter of July 2 just received here. I was beginning to fear that I had lost my confidence in the U.S. when the proffer of the Yale LL.D came – about the same time Wesleyan (Middletown, Conn.) asked me to give the Graduation Address (or the year Dr. Miller's Alma

Dear Sir:

In the absence of Sir Robert Falconer I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 6th inst.

With regard to the parchment for your Toronto LL.D. I have made inquiries from the Registrar and find that it has not been prepared and as the form has to be turned into Latin he would prefer to wait until the return of Principal Hutton to town. I shall speak about it again in September when Principal Hutton returns.

Yours very truly,

President's Secretary.

Hon. Mr. Justice Riddell, LL.D.,

The Sanoset, Rockland, Maine.

Dear Sir:

Sir Robert is on the way to England. The only person we could recommend for the position at Wesleyan University would be Lieutenant E. Gordon Manning, who graduated in Arts from Victoria College in 1909, and from the Faculty of Education in 1910. He was on the staff of the Faculty of Education when he enlisted. He was wounded in September 1916, and is home now. His home address is 11 Broadway Avenue, North Toronto, if the authorities of Wesleyan wish to communicate with him directly.

Yours very truly,

President's Secretary.

Hon. Mr. Justice Riddell,

Osgoode Hall,

Toronto.

Dear Mr. Justice Riddell:

In the absence of Professor Wrong I wish to take up with you the question of the scholarship which you were kind enough to establish in the Department of Modern History in the University. The examination for this scholarship was held last autumn and the award was made. The amount of the award is $100. The Bursar informs me that he has no funds for the payment of this scholarship, but I venture to ask whether you will be good enough to put the amount of the award at the disposal of the Bursar, as I understand that the announcement was made that there were to be three awards, one last of them in November 1913. As I said I do know the intention of Professor Wrong in regard to the matter as he is absent in England, and I am therefore not able to get his opinion, but as we are now preparing the announcement for the Junior Matriculation Curriculum for the coming year, and if the scholarship is to be continued notice of this should be inserted immediately. Would you be kind enough to let me know whether or not you would be willing to continue the amount that you have so generously given in the past provided Professor Wrong is desirous that the scholarship should be repeated? With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

My dear Mr. Justice Riddell:

Many thanks for your cheque for two hundred dollars. I will inform Professor Breen that you are unable to continue it next year, but may I at the same time assure you that the University is grateful to you for your interest in the past.

Yours sincerely,

President.
